

CHALK ART IN ACTION SEPTEMBER 13TH

The first “Chalk Art In Action” is to be held at Briarcliff Village on September 13th

- Participants: Anyone ages 16 and older. Local artists and students from high schools and universities will showcase their works on the sidewalks of Briarcliff Village.
- Prizes: Best in Show, 1st Place, Artists Choice and People’s Choice given.
- Fee: There will be no fee charged for the first 25 participants.
Contestants will be provided with a 12-color set of non-toxic pastels. A 38”x50” sheet of artist’s paper will be affixed to the sidewalk with masking tape for the chalk art design. Artists will be free to take home their artwork after the judging.
- Entertainment: Live Music and entertainment along with food and beverages for sale will round out the artistic activities. There will also be a “Children’s” Art Area where grade school and younger can exhibit their talent.
